HERE WE STAND – Women’s Festive Day

To celebrate the anniversary of the Reformation also means to commemorate women’s history and to help shape their future.

On Saturday, August 12, 2017, women from all over the world will come together to pray, think, sing, dance and feast to celebrate the anniversary of the Reformation and being women.

A date not to be missed – mark it in your calendar!

Let’s go and take along the women from your parish!

A festive day, abundant of the diversity, vitality and beauty of women.

We’d like to invite you to celebrate Women’s Festive Day during the topic week Family, Ways of Life, Gender. It will be held in Wittenberg as part of the World Reformation Exhibition.

Women’s Festive Day – here WE go

Are you interested in Women’s Festive Day and would you like to be kept informed?

Please register (together with your group) on our website, and we will keep you up to date via e-mail.

500+ HERE WE STAND is the title of the photograph which we will take around noon with as many ordained pastoresses and community teachers from the region, from EKM, and from all over the world. We are asking all ordained women to bring along their cassocks. Welcome to Women’s Festive Day! Come along! And spread the word!
